VISUAL GUIDE FOR LIKE FLYING AT BELLAHOUSTON ACADEMY

I am going to Like Flying at Bellahouston Academy, Glasgow

FRIDAY

The shows will start at 4.30pm and 6.15pm on Friday 16 September.

SATURDAY

On Saturday 17 September, the shows will start at 12.00pm and 2.00pm.

I should arrive no earlier than 15min before start time.

I will enter through the main entrance door on Gower Terrace.

There is limited parking on site.

I will go through the doors and enter the box office on the right-hand side where the school office is located. I can check my tickets here.

I will be directed to a start point in Assembly Hall.

The show will start and end here in Assembly Hall. The audience will be split into three groups and will be allocated a route to follow.

Each group is led by a guide. Each group has an usher.

This space will look different at the end of the performance than the start. Please follow your guide.

As part of the performance, I will be instructed to put headphones on.

If I want to change the volume, the controls are on the side of the headphones.

There will be a drummer on the route. They might be quite loud.

There are lots of stairs on the route, but an accessible route is available, using the lift.

This is the lift I can use if I need to.

Some of the route is outside.

I will stand here to watch a performer in the distance

This is the space where individual swings will be placed. Audience are encouraged to take a seat on a sing.

Part of the route, leading to Gym Hall.

There are two gym halls, where some of the performance will take place.

There will be performers on cocoons/harness in gym halls.

This is the science room, where some of the performance will take place. There will be a science experiment that takes place in this room involving filmed footage.

There will be an usher with each group.

If I need to leave I can take my headphones off and ask them to take me somewhere quieter.
