VISUAL GUIDE FOR DRACULA: MINA'S RECKONING AT THEATRE ROYAL

I am going to Dracula: Mina's Reckoning at Theatre Royal, 282 Hope Street, Glasgow, G2 3QA.

The evening shows will start at 7.30pm.
The afternoon show will start at 2.30pm.
I should arrive a little earlier than this.

The show will last around 2 hours and 10 minutes and will include an interval break.

This is the entrance to Theatre Royal where the performance will be taking place.

I will enter through the automatic glass doors underneath the overhang.

If I have my e-ticket, I can show it to be scanned at the main door. If I don't have an e-ticket I can go to the box office to buy my ticket.

When I walk inside the theatre, I will see this area called the foyer.

There will be Visitor Experience staff who can help with any questions about the event. It might be quite busy and noisy with other members of the audience.

This is the box office. This is where I can buy tickets.

If I have an e-ticket on my phone, or already have my tickets, I do not need to go to the box office.

When I have my tickets, I can go into the theatre.

If I have tickets in the stalls, I can follow the signs in the foyer that will say "Stalls".

If I can't find it, I can ask a member of staff for help.

I can check on my ticket where my seat is.

If I have tickets that are in the Dress Circle, I will need to take the stairs or the lift to get to my seats.

The lift is located to the left as I enter.

The stairs are very large, and in the middle of the foyer.

I can find signs on the wall that will say which level I need to go to.

---

I can find bars on level 0, level 1, level 2 and level 4 where I can buy snacks and drinks before the show and during the interval.

There are also toilets on level -1, level 0, level 1, level 2 and level 4

If I do go up the stairs, I can't access the auditorium from level 3.

Level 3 only has rooms used for different things, and I won't be able to get into the auditorium to see the show from here.

I should go onto a different level to get into the auditorium.

Auditorium/ Performance space: Dracula: Mina's Reckoning takes place in a traditional theatre.

I will watch the performance in this large room. My seat number is on my ticket. It will have a letter for the seating row and a seat number. A member of the front of house team can help me find it.

The lights will dim when the show is ready to start and the actors will come on to the stage.

The actors won't talk directly to me during the play. They will be in character.

I will need to be quiet while watching the show.

If I find sounds or lights disturbing during the show, I can ask a member of staff for earplugs, ear defenders or dark glasses at any time. I will need to return these after the performance.

If I would like to take some time out during the play I may leave at any time and take a break in the Old Ambassador Lounge until I am ready to go back in.

I can find the Old Ambassador Lounge on the right hand side when I come through the main doors, past the Scottish Opera exhibition. It will be marked with a sign “Chill Out Space”.

This corridor in the foyer leads directly to the lounge.

I can also ask a member of staff for directions.

At the end of the show the audience will clap to show the actors that they enjoyed the performance.

When the clapping has ended, the lights will get brighter. This means the show is over.

I can now leave the theatre. The front of house team will show me which way I can exit.
